HEALTH, SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT POLICY

The Health and Safety at work imposes a statutory duty on employers to ensure in so far as is reasonable practicable the health and safety of their employees while at work. This duty also extends to others who may be affected by that work. Employees also have a statutory duty to take care of themselves and others who may be affected by their acts or omissions. To enable these duties to be carried out, it is our intent to ensure that responsibilities for Health, Safety and Environmental matters are effectively assigned, accepted and fulfilled at all levels within our organizational structure.

We will, so far as is reasonable practicable, ensure that:

- HSE matters will be managed as any other major business activity.
- Safe and healthy working system are provided and maintained without causing any risk to health and environment.
- HSE culture will be developed and practiced to produce higher levels of motivation and concern for health and safety throughout the organization.
- HSE Management System (HSEMS) includes commitment to prevent injury, ill health and pollution.
- All employees are provided with adequate resources, information, instruction, training and supervision as it is necessary to achieve HSE objective and targets.
- All stakeholders are committed and adhered to this policy at all times.

This policy will be continuously monitored and improved to ensure total compliance with all the HSE requirements of legislations, regulations and codes of practice.
